The Company may in connection with the issue of any shares exercise all powers of paying commission and brokerage conferred or permitted by the Statutes provided that the amount of commission paid or agreed to be paid shall be disclosed in the manner required by the Statutes and shall not exceed 10% of the price at which the shares in respect whereof the commission is paid are issued or an amount equivalent thereto.

- 13.3 Share certificates may be renewed or replaced on the terms, conditions and provisions as to provision of evidence and indemnity (with or without security) and to payment of any exceptional out of pocket expenses, including those incurred by the Company in investigating such evidence and preparing that indemnity and security, as the Board may decide, and on surrender of the original certificate (where it is defaced, damaged or worn out), but without any further charge. The Board shall be entitled to destroy any share certificate that has been replaced.

The Company shall have a first and paramount lien on each of its shares which is not fully paid, for all amounts payable to the Company (whether presently or not) in respect of that share and to the extent and in the circumstances permitted by the Statutes. Such lien shall extend to all dividends from time to time declared or other monies paid in respect of every such share but the Board may waive any lien which has arisen and may resolve that any share shall for some limited period be exempt wholly or partially from the provisions of this Article 14.

15. Enforcement of lien by sale

The Board may sell all or any of the shares subject to any lien at any time or times and in any manner as it may determine. However, no sale shall be made until a time when any moneys in respect of that lien exists are presently payable or the liability or engagement in respect of that lien exists is liable to be presently fulfilled or discharged, and until notice in writing shall have been served on the holder or the persons (if any) entitled by transmission to the shares, demanding the amount due or specifying the liability or engagement and demanding payment or fulfilment or discharge of that lien and giving notice of intention to sell in default and default in payment, fulfilment or discharge shall have been made by him or them for 14 clear days after service of that notice. In order to give effect to any sale of that lien, the Board may authorise a person or persons to execute an instrument of transfer of the shares sold in the name and on behalf of the holder or the persons entitled by transmission in favour of the purchaser or as the purchaser may direct. The purchaser shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, and the title of the transferee to the shares shall not be affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the proceedings in reference to the sale.

16. Application of proceeds of sale

The net proceeds of any sale of shares subject to any lien, after payment of the costs, shall be applied in or towards satisfaction of so much of the amount due to the Company or of the liability or engagement (as the case may be) as is presently payable or is liable to be presently fulfilled or discharged. The balance (if any) shall (on surrender to the Company for cancellation of the certificate for the shares sold, and subject to a like lien for any moneys not presently payable or any liability or engagement not liable to be presently fulfilled or discharged as existed on the shares before the sale) be paid to the holder or the person (if any) entitled by transmission to the shares so sold (without interest).

CALLS ON SHARES

17. Calls

Subject to the terms of allotment of shares, the Board may from time to time make calls on the members in respect of any moneys unpaid on the shares, of any class, held by them respectively (whether in respect of nominal value or premium) and not payable on a date fixed by or in accordance with the terms, conditions and provisions of the issue. Each member shall (subject to receiving at least 14 clear days' notice specifying when and where payment is to be made and whether or not by instalments) be liable to pay the amount of every call so made on him as required by the notice. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Board authorising that call was passed or (as the case may require) any person to whom power has been delegated pursuant to these Articles serves notice of exercise of that power. A call may be required to be paid by instalments and may, before receipt by the Company of any sum due by notice, be either revoked or postponed in whole or part as regards all or any members as the Board may determine. A person on whom a call is made shall remain liable notwithstanding the subsequent transfer of the shares in respect of which the call was made.

18. Liability of joint holders

The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable for the payment of all calls in respect of those shares.

19. Interest on calls

If the whole of the sum payable in respect of any call is not paid on or before the day appointed for payment, the person from whom it is due and payable shall pay all costs, charges and expenses that the Company may have incurred by reason of such non-payment, together with interest on the unpaid amount from the day appointed for payment of the interest to the time of actual payment at the Prescribed Rate. The Board may waive payment of those costs, charges, expenses or interest in whole or in part.

20. Rights of member when call unpaid

Unless the Board otherwise determines, no member shall be entitled to receive any dividend or to be present and vote at a general meeting or at any separate general meeting of the holders of any class of shares either in person or (save as proxy for another member) by proxy, or be reckoned in a quorum, or to exercise any other right or privilege as a member in respect of a share held by him unless and until he shall have paid all calls for the time being due and payable by him in respect of that share, whether alone or jointly with any other person, together with interest and expenses (if any) to the Company.

21. Sums due on allotment treated as calls

Any sum payable in respect of a share on allotment or at any fixed date, whether in respect of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium or as an instalment of a call, shall for all purposes of these Articles be deemed to be a call duly made if it is not paid, the terms, conditions and provisions of these Articles shall apply as if that amount had become due and payable by virtue of a call.

22. Power to differentiate

The Board may make arrangements on the allotment or issue of shares for a difference as between the allottees or holders of those shares in the amount and time of payment of calls

23. Payment in advance of calls

The Board may, if it thinks fit, receive from any member willing to advance the same all or any part of the moneys uncalled and unpaid on the shares held by him. That payment in advance of calls shall extinguish only to that extent the liability on the shares on which it is made. The Company may pay interest on the money paid in advance, or so much of it as exceeds the amount for the time being called up on the shares in respect of which that advance has been made, at the rate as the Board may decide. The Board may at any time repay the amount so advanced on giving to that member not less than three months' notice in writing of its intention in that behalf, unless before the expiration of that notice the amount so advanced shall have been called up on the shares in respect of which it was advanced.

24. Delegation of power to make calls

If any uncalled capital of the Company is included in or charged by any mortgage or other security, the Board may delegate on the terms as it thinks fit to the person in whose favour that mortgage or security is executed, or to any other person in trust for him, the power to make calls on the members in respect of that uncalled capital, to sue in the name of the Company or otherwise for the recovery of moneys becoming due in respect of calls so made and to give valid receipts for those moneys. The power, so delegated, shall subsist during the continuance of the mortgage or security, notwithstanding any change of Directors, and shall be assignable if expressed so to be.

FORFEITURE OF SHARES

25. Notice if call not paid

If any member fails to pay the whole of any call or any instalment of any call on or before the day appointed for payment, the Board may at any time serve a notice in writing on that member or on any person entitled to the shares by transmission, requiring payment, on a date not less than 14 clear days from the date of the notice, of the amount unpaid and any interest which may have accrued on the call or instalment of any call and any costs, charges and expenses incurred by the Company by reason of that non-payment. The notice shall name the place where the payment is to be made and state that, if the notice is not complied with, the shares in respect of which that call was made will be liable to be forfeited.

26. Forfeiture for non-compliance

If the notice referred to in Article 25 is not complied with, any share in respect of which it was given may, at any time before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Board to that effect. That forfeiture shall include all dividends declared or other moneys payable in respect of the forfeited shares and not paid before the forfeiture.

27. Notice after forfeiture

When any share has been forfeited, notice of the forfeiture shall be served on the person who was before forfeiture the holder of the share or the person entitled to that share by transmission (as the case may be). An entry of that notice having been given and of the forfeiture with the date of the notice having been made in the Register in respect of that share. However, no forfeiture shall be invalidated by any omission to give the required notice or to make the entry as set out in this Article 27.

28. Forfeiture may be annulled

The Board may, at any time before any share so forfeited has been cancelled or sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of, annul the forfeiture, on the terms that payment shall be made of all calls and interest due on those shares and all expenses incurred in respect of the share and on any further terms (if any) as the Board shall see fit.

29. Surrender

The Board may accept a surrender of any share liable to be forfeited. In that case references in these Articles to forfeiture shall include surrender.

30. Disposal of forfeited shares

Every share which is forfeited shall on forfeiture become the property of the Company. Subject to the provisions of CA 1985, any forfeited share may be sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of, either to the person who was before forfeiture entitled to the share, or to any person otherwise entitled to the share on terms, conditions and provisions and in any manner the Board shall determine. The Board may, for the purposes of the disposal, authorise some person to transfer the share in question and may enter the name of the transferee in respect of the transferred share in the Register, even in the absence of any share certificate being lodged in respect of the share and may issue a new certificate to the transferee. An instrument of transfer executed by that person shall be effective as if it had been executed by the holder of, or the person entitled by transmission to, the share. The Company may receive the consideration (if any) given for the share on its disposal.

31. Effect of forfeiture

A shareholder whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a member in respect of the shares forfeited and shall surrender to the Company for cancellation the certificate for those shares. He shall nevertheless be liable to pay to the company all calls made and not paid on those shares at the time of forfeiture, and interest on those shares from the date of the forfeiture to the date of payment at the Prescribed Rate, in the same manner in all respects as if the shares had not been forfeited, and to satisfy all (if any) claims, demands and liabilities which the company might have enforced in respect of the shares at the time of forfeiture, without any reduction or allowance for the value of the shares at the time of forfeiture or for any consideration received on their disposal.

32. Extinction of claims

The forfeiture of a share shall involve the extinction at the time of forfeiture of all interest in and all claims and demands against the Company in respect of the share and all other rights and liabilities incidental to the share as between the holder whose share is forfeited and the Company, except those rights and liabilities as are by these Articles expressly saved, or as are by the Statutes given or imposed in the case of past members.

33. Evidence of forfeiture

A statutory declaration by a Director or the Secretary that a share has been forfeited in pursuance of these Articles, and stating the date on which it was forfeited, shall, as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share adversely to the forfeiture of that share, be conclusive evidence of the facts stated in that statutory declaration. The statutory declaration, together with the receipt of the Company for the consideration (if any) given for the share on the sale or disposition of that share and a certificate for the share under the Seal delivered to the person whom the same is sold or disposed of, shall (subject if necessary to the execution of an instrument of transfer) constitute a good title to the share. Subject to the execution of any necessary transfer, that person shall be registered as the holder of the share and shall be discharged from all calls made prior to that sale or disposition and shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money or other consideration (if any) nor shall his title to the share be affected by any act, omission or irregularity relating to or connected with the proceedings relating to the forfeiture or disposal of the share. That person shall not (except by express agreement with the Company) become entitled to any dividend which might have accrued on the share before the completion of the sale or disposition of that share.

34. Form of transfer

34.1 Subject to the restrictions of these Articles, each member may transfer all or any of his shares by instrument of transfer in writing in any usual form or in any form approved by the Board. That instrument shall be executed by or on behalf of the transferor and (in the case of a transfer of a share which is not fully paid up) by or on behalf of the transferee. The transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of that share until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register in respect of it.

34.2 Notwithstanding article 34.1 the Board may adopt procedures for recording, transferring and evidencing title to its shares without a written instrument provided that such procedures are in accordance with the statutes and regulations made pursuant thereto.

35. Right to refuse registration

35.1 The Board may, in its absolute discretion and without giving any reason, refuse to register any transfer of a share (or renunciation of a renounceable letter of allotment) unless:

35.1.1 it is in respect of a share which is fully paid up;

35.1.2 it is in respect of only one class of shares;

35.1.3 it is in favour of a single transferee or not more than four joint transferees such persons not being infants, persons in respect of whom a receiving order or adjudication order in bankruptcy has been made which remains undercharged or a person who is then suffering from a mental disorder;

35.1.4 it is duly stamped (if so required); and

35.1.5 it is delivered for registration to the Office or such other place as the Board may from time to time determine, accompanied (except in the case of a transfer by a recognised person where a certificate has not been issued or in the case of a renunciation) by the certificate for the shares to which it relates and any other evidence as the Board may reasonably require to prove the title of the transferor or person renouncing and the due execution of the transfer or renunciation by him or, if the transfer or renunciation is executed by some other person to do so, provided that the Board shall not refuse to register any transfer or renunciation of partly paid shares which are admitted to the official list maintained by the UKLA on the grounds that they are partly paid shares in circumstances where that refusal would prevent dealings in those shares from taking place on an open and proper basis.

35.2 Transfers of shares will not be registered in the circumstances referred to in Article 81.

36. Notice of refusal

If the Board refuses to register a transfer of a share it shall, within two months after the date on which the transfer was lodged with the Company, send notice of the refusal to the transferee. Any instrument of transfer which the Board refuses to register shall (except in the case of suspected or actual fraud) be returned to the person depositing it. All instruments of transfer which are registered may be retained by the Company.

37. Closing of Register

The registration of transfers of shares or of any class of shares may be suspended (to the extent the same is consistent with CA 1985) at any times and for any periods (not exceeding 30 days in any year) as the Board may from time to time determine. Notice of closure of the Register shall be given in accordance with the requirements of CA 1985.

38. Fees on registration

No fee shall be charged for registration of a transfer or on the registration of any probate, letters of administration, certificate of death or marriage, power of attorney, notice or other instrument relating to or affecting the title to any shares.

39. Other powers in relation to transfers

39.1 Nothing in these Articles shall preclude the Board:

39.1.1 from recognising a renunciation of the allotment of any share by the allottee in favour of some other person; or

39.1.2 if empowered by these Articles to authorise any person to execute an instrument of transfer of a share, from authorising any person to transfer that share in accordance with any procedures implemented pursuant to Article 15.

TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

40. On death

If a member dies, the survivors or survivor, where he was a joint holder, and his executors or administrators, where he was a sole or the only survivor of joint holders, shall be the only persons recognised by the Company as having any title to his shares. Nothing in these Articles shall release the estate of a deceased member from any liability in respect of any share which had been solely or jointly held by him.

41. Election of person entitled by transmission

Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of any member, or of any other event giving rise to a transmission of that entitlement by operation of law, may, on evidence as to his title being produced as the Board may require, elect either to become registered as a member or to have some person nominated by him registered as a member if he elects to become registered himself, he shall give notice to the Company to that effect. If he elects to have some other person registered, he shall execute an instrument of transfer of that share to that person. All the provisions of these Articles relating to the transfer of shares shall apply to the notice or instrument of transfer (as the case may be) as if it were an instrument of transfer executed by the member and his death, bankruptcy or other event as aforesaid had not occurred. Where the entitlement of a person to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of an member or of any other event giving rise to its transmission by operation of law is proved to the satisfaction of the Board, the Board shall within two months after proof cause the entitlement of that person to be noted in the Register.

42. Rights on transmission

Where a person becomes entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of any member, or of any other event giving rise to a transmission of that entitlement by operation of law, the rights of the holder in relation to that share shall cease. However, the person so entitled may give good discharge for any dividends and other moneys payable in respect of it and shall have the same rights to which he would be entitled if he were the holder of the share, except that he shall not, before he is registered as the holder of the share, be entitled in respect of it to receive notice of, or to attend or vote at any meeting of the Company or at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares of the Company. The Board may at any time give notice requiring that person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the share. If the notice is not complied with within 60 days, the Board may on the expiry of that period withhold payment of all dividends and other moneys payable in respect of that share until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

DESTRUCTION OF DOCUMENTS

43. Destruction of documents

43.1 The Company may destroy:

- 43.1.1 any instrument of transfer, after six years from the date on which it is registered;
- 43.1.2 any dividend mandate or any variation or cancellation of that dividend mandate or any notification of change of name or address, after two years from the date on which it is recorded;
- 43.1.3 any share certificate, after one year from the date on which it is cancelled; and
- 43.1.4 any other document on the basis of which any entry in the Register is made, after six years from the date on which an entry was first made in the Register in respect of it;

provided that the Company may destroy any type of document at a date earlier than that authorised by this Article if a copy of that document is retained on microfilm or by other similar means so that the copy is retained until the expiration of the period applicable to the destruction of the original of that document.

43.2 It shall be conclusively presumed in favour of the Company that every entry in the Register purporting to have been made on the basis of a document so destroyed was duly and properly made, that every instrument of transfer destroyed was duly registered, that every share certificate destroyed was duly cancelled, that every other document destroyed had been properly dealt with in accordance with its terms, conditions and provisions and was valid and effective in accordance with the particulars in the records of the Company, provided that:

43.2.1 this Article 43 shall apply only to the destruction of any document in good faith and without notice of any claim (regardless of the parties to it) to which the document might be relevant;

43.2.2 nothing in this Article 43 shall be construed as imposing on the Company any liability in respect of the destruction of any document otherwise than as provided for in this Article 43 which would not attach to the Company in the absence of this Article 43; and 43.2.3 references in this Article 43 to the destruction of any document include references to the disposal of it in any manner.

ALTERATION OF SHARE CAPITAL

44. Increase, consolidation, cancellation and sub-division

44.1 The Company in general meeting may from time to time by ordinary resolution:

44.1.1 increase its share capital by a sum to be divided into shares of the amount that the resolution prescribes;

44.1.2 consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of larger amount than its existing shares;

44.1.3 cancel any shares which at the date of the passing of the resolution have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person, and diminish the amount of its share capital by the amount of the shares cancelled by that resolution; and

44.1.4 subject to the provisions of the Statutes, sub-divide its shares or any of them into shares of smaller amount, and may by that resolution determine that, as between the shares resulting from that sub-division, one or more of the shares may, as compared with the others, have any preferred, deferred or other special rights or be subject to any restrictions as the Company has power to attach to unissued or new shares.

45. Fractions

45.1 Whenever as the result of any consolidation, division or sub-division of shares any difficulty arises, the Board may settle it as it thinks fit, and in particular (but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing) where the number of shares to be consolidated into a single share and as a result of that consolidation that holder would become entitled to a fraction of a consolidated share:

45.1.1 the Board may determine which of the shares of that holder are to be treated as giving rise to the fractional entitlement and may decide that any of those shares shall be consolidated with any of the shares of any other holder or holders which are similarly determined by it to be treated as giving rise to a fractional entitlement for that other holder or holders into a single consolidated share and the Board may, on behalf of all those holders, sell that consolidated share for the best price reasonably obtained to any person (including the Company) and distribute the net proceeds of sale after deduction of the expenses of sale in due proportions among those holders (except that any amount otherwise due to a holder, being less than £3.00 or any other sum as the Board may from time to time determine, may be retained for the benefit of the Company); or

45.1.2 provided that the necessary unissued shares are available, the Board may issue to that holder credited as fully paid by way of capitalisation the minimum number of shares required to round up his holding to an exact multiple of the number of shares to be consolidated into a single share (that issue being deemed to have been effected prior to consolidation), and the amount required to pay up those shares shall be appropriated at the Board's discretion from any of the sums standing to the credit of any of the Company's reserve accounts (including share premium account and capital redemption reserve) or to the credit of profit and loss account and capitalised by applying the same in paying up the share. In relation to this capitalisation the Board may exercise all the powers conferred on it by Article 153 without an ordinary resolution of the Company.

45.2 For the purposes of any sale of consolidated shares pursuant to Article 45.1 the Board may authorise some person to execute an instrument of transfer of the shares to, or in accordance with, the directions of the purchaser, and the transferee shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the proceedings in reference to the sale.

46. Reduction of capital

Subject to the provisions of the Statutes and to any rights for the time being attached to any shares, the Company may by special resolution reduce its share capital or any capital redemption reserve or share premium account in any way.

47. Purchase of own shares

Subject to the provisions of the Statutes, to any rights for the time being attached to any shares and to any requirements imposed by the London Stock Exchange in respect of securities admitted to listing, the Company may purchase any of its own shares of any class (including any redeemable shares). Any shares to be so purchased may be selected in any manner whatsoever. Where the Company has issued any convertible securities convertible into or carrying a right to subscribe for shares of the class proposed to be purchased, no purchase by the Company of its own shares will take place unless it has been sanctioned by an extraordinary resolution passed at a separate class meeting of the holders of each class of convertible securities. Any purchase by the Company of its own shares (a) shall be limited to a maximum price not exceeding 5 per cent above the average of the middle market quotations taken from the AIM Appendix to the London Stock Exchange Daily Official List for the 10 Business Days immediately preceding the date on which the contract for purchase is made and (b) if made by tender, the tender shall be made available to all members on the same terms.

VARIATION OF CLASS RIGHTS

48. Sanction to variation

Subject to the provisions of the Statutes, if at any time the share capital of the Company is divided into shares of different classes, any of the rights for the time being attached to any share or class of shares in the Company (and whether or not the Company may be or is about to be wound up) may from time to time be varied or abrogated in a manner (if any) as may be provided by those rights or, in the absence of any provision, either with the consent in writing of the holders of not less than three-quarters in nominal value of the issued shares of the class (excluding any shares of that class held as treasury shares) or with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of shares of the class and duly convened and held in accordance with these articles.

49. Class meetings

All the provisions in these Articles as to general meetings shall with any modifications apply equally to every meeting of the holders of any class of shares. The Board may convene a meeting of the holders of any class of shares whenever it thinks fit and whether or not the business to be transacted involves a variation or abrogation of class rights. The quorum at that meeting shall be not less than two persons present holding at least one-third of the nominal value of the issued shares of the class in question (excluding any shares of that class held as treasury shares). Every holder of shares of the class (other than the holder of treasury shares), present in person or by proxy, may demand a poll. Each holder of shares of the class shall on a poll be entitled to one vote for every share of the class held by him (subject to any rights or restrictions attached to that class). If at any adjourned meeting of the holders a quorum is not present, one person present holding shares of the class in question

(whatever the number of shares held by him but excluding any shares of that class held as treasury shares) shall be a quorum provided that where a person is present by proxy or proxies, he is treated as holding only the shares in respect of those proxies which are authorised to exercise voting rights.

50. Deemed variation

Subject to the terms of issue of or rights attached to any shares, the rights or privileges attached to any class of shares shall not be deemed to be varied or abrogated by the creation or issue of any new shares ranking pari passu in all respects (save as to the date from which those new shares shall rank for dividend) with or subsequent to those already issued or by the reduction of the capital paid up on those shares or by the purchase or redemption by the Company of its own shares in accordance with the provisions of the Statutes and these Articles.

GENERAL MEETINGS

51. Annual general meetings

The Company shall in each year hold a general meeting as its Annual General Meeting in addition to any other meetings in that year, and shall specify the meeting as such in the notice convening it.

52. Calling of general meetings

The Directors may call a general meeting. The Directors must call a general meeting if the members and the 2006 Act require them to do so.

53. Notice of general meetings

53.1 A general meeting must be called in accordance with the notice periods prescribed by the Statutes. Notice of general meetings must be sent or supplied in accordance with the provisions on Notices set out in these Articles.

53.2 Every notice of meeting of the Company shall

53.2.1 Specify the time, date and place of the meeting;

53.2.2 With reasonable prominence state that a member may appoint:

- (a) a proxy to exercise all or any of the member's rights to attend, speak and vote at the meeting, and;
- (b) more than one proxy in relation to the meeting if each proxy is appointed to exercise the rights attached to a different share or shares held by the member;

53.2.3 in the case of an Annual General Meeting, specify the meeting as such;

- 53.2.4 in the case of any general meeting at which business other than routine business is to be transacted, specify the general nature of such business; and
- 53.2.5 if the meeting is called to consider a Special Resolution, include the text of the resolution and the intention to propose the resolution as a Special Resolution.

54. Omission to send notice

If the Company gives notice of a general meeting or a resolution intended to be moved at a general meeting, an accidental failure to give notice to one or more persons is to be disregarded for the purpose of determining whether notice of the meeting or resolution is properly given but this is subject to the exceptions prescribed by the 2006 Act. The non-receipt of a notice of a general meeting or a resolution intended to be moved at a general meeting is to be disregarded for the purpose of determining whether notice of the meeting or resolution is properly given.

55. Postponement of general meetings

If the board, in its absolute discretion, considers that it is impractical or unreasonable for any reason to hold a general meeting on the date or at the time or place specified in the notice calling the general meeting, it may postpone the general meeting to another date, time and/or place. The Board shall take reasonable steps to ensure that notice of the date, time and place of the postponed meeting is provided to any member trying to attend the meeting at the original time and place. Notice of the business to be transacted at that postponed meeting shall not be required if a meeting is postponed in accordance with this Article, the appointment of a proxy will be valid if it is delivered and received as required by these Articles not less than 48 hours before the time appointed for holding the postponed meeting. The Board may also postpone any meeting which has been rearranged under this Article.

56. Special Business

- 56.1 All business that is transacted at a general meeting shall be deemed special, except the following transactions at an annual general meeting:
 - 56.1.1 the declaration of dividends;
 - 56.1.2 the receipt and consideration of the annual accounts and the reports of the Directors and the Auditors and any other document required to be annexed to the annual accounts;
 - 56.1.3 the election or re-election of Directors;
 - 56.1.4 the re-appointment of the Auditors retiring (unless they were last appointed otherwise than by the Company in general meeting) and the fixing of the remuneration of the Auditors or the determination of the manner in which such remuneration is to be fixed;
 - 56.1.5 considering and/or approving any report on the remuneration of Directors.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

57. Quorum

57.1 No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum is present when the meeting proceeds to business. But the absence of a quorum shall not preclude the appointment of a chairman which shall not be treated as part of the business of the meeting. Two qualifying persons present at a meeting are a quorum unless each is a qualifying person only because:

57.1.1 he is authorised to act as the representative of a corporation in relation to the meeting, and they are representatives of the same corporation, or

57.1.2 he is appointed as a proxy of a member in relation to the meeting they are proxies of the same member.

57.2 A “qualifying person” is an individual who is a member, a person authorised to act as the representative of a member (being a corporation) in relation to the meeting or a person appointed as proxy of a member in relation to the meeting.

58. If quorum not present

If within fifteen minutes (or a longer interval as the Chairman in his absolute discretion thinks fit) from the time appointed for the holding of a general meeting a quorum is not present, or if during a meeting the quorum ceases to be present, the meeting is dissolved if members or any of them required the meeting to be called or the members of any of them called the meeting. In any other case, the meeting shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place, or to later on the same day or to any other day and at any time and place as the Chairman (or, in default, the Board) may determine. If at that adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within five minutes from the time appointed for holding the meeting, a qualifying person shall be quorum.

59. Chairman

The Chairman (if any) of the Board shall preside as Chairman at every general meeting of the Company. If there is no Chairman or if at any meeting he is not present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, or is unwilling to act as Chairman, the Deputy Chairman (if any) of the Board shall if present and willing to act preside as Chairman at that meeting. If neither Chairman nor the Deputy Chairman is present and willing to act, the Directors present shall choose one of their number to act or, if there is only one Director present, he shall be Chairman if willing to act if no Director is present and willing to act, the members present personally and entitled to vote shall elect one of themselves to be Chairman of the meeting by a resolution passed at the meeting.

60. Directors and other persons may attend and speak

Each Director shall, even if he is not a member, be entitled to attend and speak at any general meeting and at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares of the Company. The Chairman may invite any person to attend and speak at any general meeting where he considers this will assist in the deliberations of the meeting.

61. Power to adjourn

The Chairman may, with the consent of a meeting at which a quorum is present, and shall, if so directed by the meeting, adjourn any meeting from time to time (or indefinitely) and from place to place as the meeting shall determine. However, without prejudice to any other power which he may have under these Articles or at common law, the Chairman may, without the need for the consent of the meeting, interrupt or adjourn any meeting (whether or not it has commenced or a quorum is present) from time to time and from place to place, or for an indefinite period, if he is of the opinion that it has become necessary to do so in order to secure the proper and orderly conduct of the meeting or to give all persons entitled to do so a reasonable opportunity of attending, speaking and voting at the meeting or to ensure that the business of the meeting is properly disposed of.

62. Notice of adjourned meeting

Where a meeting is adjourned indefinitely, the Board shall fix the time and place for the adjourned meeting. Whenever a meeting is adjourned for 30 days or more or indefinitely, seven clear days' notice at the least, specifying the place, the day and time of the adjourned meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted, shall be given in the same manner as in the case of an original meeting. Except where specified in this Article, no member shall be entitled to any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at any adjourned meeting.

63. Business of adjourned meeting

No business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business which might properly have been transacted at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

64. Accommodation of members and security arrangements

64.1 The Board may, for the purpose of controlling the level of attendance and ensuring the safety of those attending at any place specified for the holding of a general meeting, from time to time make any arrangements that the Board shall in its absolute discretion consider to be appropriate and may from time to time vary the arrangements in place or make new arrangements. The entitlement of any member or proxy to attend a general meeting at that place shall be subject to any arrangements as may be approved by the Board. In the case of any meeting to which those arrangements apply the Board may, when specifying the place of the meeting

64.1.1 direct that the meeting shall be held at a place specified in the notice at which the Chairman of the meeting shall preside ("the Principal Place"), and

64.1.2 make arrangements for simultaneous attendance and participation at other places by members entitled to attend the general meeting, but excluded from the Principal Place under the provisions of this Article, or who wish to attend at any other places shall be able to see, and hear and be seen and heard by, persons attending at the Principal Place and at those other places, by any means.

Any arrangements for simultaneous attendance may include arrangements for controlling the level of attendance in any manner at any of such other places (as stated above), provided that they shall operate so that any members or proxies excluded from attending the Principal Place are able to attend at one of the other places. For the purposes of all other provisions of these Articles any other meeting shall be treated as being held and taking place at the Principal Place.

- 64.2 The Board may direct that any person wishing to attend any meeting should provide evidence of identity and submit to any searches or other security arrangements or restrictions as the Board shall consider appropriate in the circumstances. The Board shall be entitled in its absolute discretion to refuse entry to, or eject from, any meeting any person who fails to provide evidence of identity or to submit to any searches or to otherwise comply with the security arrangements or restrictions.

65. Orderly Conduct

The Chairman shall take any action or give any directions he thinks fit to promote the orderly conduct of the business of the meeting as laid down in the notice of the meeting. The Chairman's decision on matters of procedure or arising incidentally from the business of the meeting shall be final, as shall his determination as to whether any matter is of that nature.

VOTING

66. Method of voting

- 66.1 At any general meeting a resolution put to a vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands, unless (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) a poll is duly demanded. Subject to the provisions of 2006 Act, a poll may be demanded by:

- 66.1.1 the Chairman of the meeting; or
- 66.1.2 in writing by at least five members present in person or by proxy or being a duly authorised representative of a corporation and entitled to vote on the resolution; or
- 66.1.3 in writing by any member or members present in person or by proxy or being a duly authorised representative of a corporation which is a member and representing not less than 10 per cent of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote on the resolution (excluding any voting rights attached to any shares in the Company held as treasury shares); or
- 66.1.4 in writing by a member or members present in person or by proxy or being duly authorised representative of a corporation holding shares conferring a right to vote on the resolution, being shares on which an aggregate sum has been paid-up equal to not less than 10 per cent of the total sum paid up on all the shares conferring that right (excluding any voting rights attached to any shares in the Company held as treasury shares)

66.2 The Chairman may also demand a poll before a resolution is put to the vote on a show of hands.

66.3 At general meetings, resolutions shall be put to the vote by the Chairman and there shall be no requirement for the resolution to be proposed or seconded by any person.

67. Chairman's declaration conclusive on show of hands

Unless a poll is demanded and the demand is not withdrawn, a declaration by the Chairman of the meeting that a resolution on a show of hands has been carried, or carried unanimously or by a particular majority, or lost, or not carried by a particular majority, and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of proceedings of the Company, shall be conclusive evidence of that fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded for or against each resolution.

68. Objection to error in voting

No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter or to the counting of, or failure to count, any vote, except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered or at which the error occurs. Any objection or error shall be referred to the Chairman of the meeting and shall only vitiate the decision of the meeting on any resolution if the Chairman decides that that objection or error is of sufficient magnitude to vitiate the resolution or may otherwise have affected the decision of the meeting. The decision of the Chairman on those matters shall be final and conclusive.

69. Amendment to resolutions

69.1 If an amendment is proposed to any resolution under consideration but shall in good faith be ruled out of order by the Chairman of the meeting, any error in that ruling shall not invalidate the proceedings on the substantive resolution.

69.2 In the case of a resolution duly proposed as a special resolution, no amendment to that resolution (other than an amendment to correct a patent error) may in any event be considered or voted on, and in the case of a resolution duly proposed as an ordinary resolution no amendment to that resolution (other than an amendment to correct a patent error) may be considered or voted on unless either at least 48 hours prior to the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which that ordinary resolution is to be proposed, notice in writing of the terms of the amendment and intention to move that resolution has been lodged at the Office or the Chairman of the meeting in his absolute discretion decides that it may be considered or voted on.

70. Procedure on a poll

70.1 Any poll duly demanded on the election of a Chairman of a meeting or on any question of adjournment shall be taken at the meeting. A poll duly demanded on any other matter shall be taken in a manner (including the use of ballot or voting papers or tickets) and at a time and place, not being more than 30 days from the date of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the poll was demanded, as the Chairman shall direct. The Chairman may appoint scrutineers who need not be members. No notice need be given of a poll not taken immediately if the time and place at which it is to be taken are announced at the meeting at which it is demanded in any other case at least seven clear day's notice shall be given specifying the time and place at which the poll is to be taken. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

- 70.2 The demand for a poll (other than on the election of a Chairman or any question of adjournment) shall not prevent the continuance of the meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded. If a poll is demanded before the declaration of the result on a show of hands and the demand is duly withdrawn, the meeting shall continue as if the demand had not been made.
- 70.3 The demand for a poll may, be withdrawn at any time before the poll is taken, but only with the consent of the Chairman. A demand so withdrawn shall not invalidate the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made.
- 70.4 On a poll votes may be given in person or by proxy. A member entitled to more than one vote need not, if he votes, use all his votes or cast all the votes he uses in the same way.

71. Votes of members

- 71.1 Subject to the provisions of the Statutes, to any special terms as to voting on which any shares may have been issued or may for the time being be held and to any suspension or abrogation of voting rights pursuant to these Articles, at any general meeting:

71.1.1 on a show of hands;

- (a) each member (being an individual) present in person or by one or more proxies has in total one vote; and
- (b) each member (being a corporation) present by either one or more proxies, or one or more duly authorised representatives, or both, has in total one vote; and 71.1.2 on a poll each member present in person or by proxy or (being a corporation) by a duly authorised representative has one vote for each share of which he is the holder.

- 71.2 For the avoidance of doubt, the Company itself is prohibited (to the extent specified by the Statutes) from exercising any rights to attend or vote at meetings in respect of any shares held by it as treasury shares. For the purposes of Article 71.1.1 on a show of hands a proxy or representative has only one vote even if the proxy or representative is also a member, or is a proxy or representative for more than one member or both.
- 71.3 If two or more persons are joint holders of a share, then in voting on any question the vote of the senior holder who tenders a vote, (whether in person or by proxy), may be counted by the Company and for this purpose the senior holder is determined by the order in which the names of the joint holders appear in the Register.
- 71.4 Where in England or elsewhere a receiver or other person (by whatever name called) has been appointed by any court claiming jurisdiction in that behalf to exercise powers with respect to the property or affairs of any member on the ground (however formulated) of mental disorder, the Board may in its absolute discretion, on or subject to the production of evidence of the appointment as the Board may require, permit that receiver or other person to vote in person or, on a poll, by proxy on behalf of that member at any general meeting. Evidence to the satisfaction of the Board of the authority of the person claiming to exercise the right to vote shall be deposited at the Office, or deposited or received at any other place or address as is specified in accordance with these Articles for the deposit or receipt of appointments of proxy, not less than 48 hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the right to vote is to be exercised, and in default the right to vote shall not be exercisable.

72. No Casting vote

In the case of an equality of votes at a general meeting, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the Chairman of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place or at which the poll was demanded shall not be entitled to a second or casting vote in addition to any other vote that he may have.

73. Restriction on voting rights for unpaid calls etc

No member shall, unless the Board otherwise determines, be entitled to vote at a general meeting or at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares, either in person or by proxy, or to exercise any other right or privilege as a member in respect of a share held by him, unless and until all calls or other sums presently due and payable by him in respect of that share, whether alone or jointly with any other person, together with interest and expenses (if any), have been paid to the Company.

74. Voting by proxy

Any person (whether a member of the Company or not) may be appointed to act as a proxy. The appointment of a proxy shall not preclude a member from attending and voting in person at the meeting or poll in respect of which the proxy is appointed.

75. Form of proxy

75.1 The appointment of a proxy shall subject to the provisions of the Statutes:

75.1.1 be in writing and may be contained in an electronic communication, in any common form or in any other form that the Board may approve, and (i) if in writing but not contained in an electronic communication, made under the hand of the appointor or of his attorney duly authorised in writing, or, if the appointor is a corporation under its common seal or under the hand of some officer or attorney or other person duly authorised in that behalf, or (ii) in the case of an appointment contained in an electronic communication, submitted by or on behalf of the appointor, subject to any terms, conditions and provisions and authenticated in the manner the Board may in its absolute discretion determine;

- 75.1.2 be deemed (subject to any contrary direction contained in it) to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a poll and to vote on any resolution or amendment of a resolution put to the meeting for which it is given, as the proxy thinks fit;
 - 75.1.3 unless the contrary is stated in it, be valid as well for any adjournment of the meeting as for the meeting to which it relates; and
 - 75.1.4 where it is stated to apply to more than one meeting, be valid for all such meetings as well as for any adjournment of any such meetings.
- 75.2 The Directors may allow a proxy for a holder of any shares in uncertificated form to be appointed by electronic communication in the form of an uncertificated proxy instruction. The Directors may also allow any supplement to the uncertificated proxy instruction or any amendment or revocation of any uncertificated proxy instruction to be made by a further uncertificated proxy instruction.
- 75.3 The Directors may decide what method should be used to determine at what time the instruction or notification is treated as being received by the Company. The Directors may treat any notification purporting or expressed to be sent on behalf of a holder of a share in uncertificated form as sufficient evidence of the authority of the person sending the instruction to send it on behalf of that holder.
- 75.4 For the purposes of this Article, an uncertificated proxy instruction is a properly authenticated dematerialised instruction, and/or other instruction or notification, sent through a relevant system to a participant in that system chosen by the Directors to act for the Company. The uncertificated proxy instruction may be in any form and subject to any terms, conditions and provisions that the Directors deem appropriate, but always subject to the facilities and requirements of the relevant system.
- 76. Deposit or receipt of proxy
- 76.1 The appointment of a proxy and the power of attorney or other authority (if any) under which it is signed, or a copy of that authority certified notarially or in some other way approved by the Board, shall
 - 76.1.1 in the case of an instrument in writing (including, whether or not the appointment of proxy is contained in an electronic communication, that power of attorney or other authority) be deposited at the Office or at such other place or places within the United Kingdom as is specified in the notice convening the meeting or in any notice of any adjourned meeting or in any appointment of proxy sent out by the Company in relation to the meeting not less than 48 hours before the time of the holding of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the appointment proposes to vote; or

76.1.2 in the case of an appointment contained in an electronic communication, where an address has been specified for the purpose of receiving communications:

- (a) in the notice covering the meeting; or
- (b) in any instrument of proxy sent out by the Company in relation to the meeting; or
- (c) in any invitation contained in an electronic communication to appoint a proxy issued by the Company in relation to the meeting;

be received at such address not less than 48 hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the appointment proposes to vote; or

76.1.3 in the case of a poll taken more than 48 hours after it is demanded, be deposited or received after the poll has been demanded and not less than 24 hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll; or

76.1.4 where the poll is not taken immediately but is taken not more than 48 hours after it was demanded, be delivered at the meeting at which the poll was demanded to the Chairman of the meeting or to any Director, and an appointment of proxy not deposited, delivered or received in a permitted manner shall be invalid. No appointment of proxy shall be valid after expiry of 12 months from the date specified as the date of its execution or the date of its submission in that proxy, except at an adjourned meeting or on a poll demanded at a meeting or an adjourned meeting in cases where the meeting was originally held within 12 months from that date.

76.2 In calculating the periods mentioned in this Article, no account is to be taken of any part of a day that is not a working day, unless the Directors decide otherwise in relation to a specific general meeting.

77. More than one proxy may be appointed

A member may appoint more than one proxy to attend on the same occasion. When two or more valid but differing appointments of proxy are received in respect of the same share for use at the same meeting and in respect of the same matter, the one which is last validly received (regardless of its date or of the date of its execution or submission) shall be treated as replacing and revoking the other or others as regards that share. If the Company is unable to determine which appointment was last validly received, none of them shall be treated as valid in respect of that share.

78. Board may supply proxy cards

The Board may at the expense of the Company send or make available, by post, electronic communication or otherwise, appointments of proxy (reply-paid or otherwise) to members for use at any general meeting or at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares, either in blank or nominating in the alternative any one or more of the Directors or any other persons. If for the purpose of any meeting invitations to appoint as proxy a person or one of a number of persons specified in the invitations are issued at the expense of the Company, these invitations shall, subject to Article 54, be issued to all (and not some only) of the members entitled to be sent a notice of the meeting and to vote at that meeting by proxy.

79. Revocation of proxy

A vote given or poll demanded in accordance with the terms of an appointment of proxy shall be valid even in the event of the death or mental disorder of the principal or the revocation of the appointment of proxy, or of the authority under which the appointment of proxy was executed, or the transfer of the share in respect of which the appointment of proxy is given, unless notice in writing of that death, mental disorder, revocation or transfer shall have been received by the Company at the Office, or at any other place or places or address as has or have been appointed for the deposit or receipt of appointments of proxy, at least 48 hours before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting or the taking of the poll at which the appointment of proxy is used.

80. Corporate Representative

80.1 Any corporation which is a member of the Company may by resolution of its directors or other governing body, authorise a person or persons to act as its representative or representatives at any meeting of the Company or at any separate general meeting of the holders of any class of share. Where the corporation authorises:

80.1.1 only one person, he is entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the corporation as the corporation could exercise if it were an individual member of the Company; or

80.1.2 more than one person, any one of them is entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the corporation as the corporation could exercise if it were an individual member of the Company and that corporation shall for the purposes of these Articles be deemed to be present in person at any meeting if a person or persons so authorised is or are present at it.

80.2 Any authorised person shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the corporation (in respect of that part of the corporation's holdings to which the authority relates) that the corporation could exercise if it were an individual member. The corporation shall for the purposes of these Articles be deemed to be present in person at that meeting if an authorised person is present, and all references to attendance and voting in person shall be construed accordingly. A Director, the Secretary or some person authorised for the purpose by the Secretary may require the representative to produce a certified copy of the resolution so authorising him or any other evidence of his authority reasonably satisfactory to them before permitting him to exercise his powers.

81. Failure to disclose interests in shares

- 81.1 Where a member, or any other person appearing to be interested in shares held by that member, has been issued with a notice pursuant to section 793 2006 Act (a “Section 793 Notice”) and has failed in relation to any shares (“the default shares”, which expression includes any shares issued after the date of that notice in right of those shares) to give the Company the information required within the prescribed period from the service of the notice, the following sanctions shall apply unless the Board otherwise determines:
- 81.1.1 the member shall not be entitled (in respect of the default shares) to be present or to vote (either in person or by representative or proxy) at any general meeting or at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares or on any poll, or to exercise any other right conferred by membership in relation to that meeting or poll; and
 - 81.1.2 where the default shares represent at least 0.25 per cent in nominal value of the issued share of their class excluding shares held as treasury shares:
 - (a) any dividend or other money payable in respect of the shares shall be withheld by the Company, which shall not have any obligation to pay interest in it, and the member shall not be entitled to elect, pursuant to Article 152, to receive shares instead of that dividend; and
 - (b) no transfer, other than an excepted transfer, of any shares held by the member shall be registered unless:
 - (I) the member is not himself in default as regards supplying the information required; and
 - (II) the member proves to the satisfaction of the Board that no person in default as regards supplying that information is interested in any of the shares the subject of the transfer.
- 81.2 Where the sanctions under Article 81.1 apply in relation to any shares, they shall cease to have effect (and any dividends withheld under Article 81.1.2 shall become payable)
- 81.2.1 if the shares are transferred by means of an excepted transfer but only in respect of the shares transferred; or
 - 81.2.2 at the end of the period of seven days (or such shorter period as the Board may determine) following receipt by the Company of the information required by the Section 793 Notice and the Board being fully satisfied that the information in the Section 793 Notice is full and complete.
- 81.3 Where, on the basis of information obtained from a member in respect of any share held by him, the Company issues a Section 793 Notice to any other person, it shall at the same time send a copy of the Section 793 Notice to the member, but the accidental omission to do so, or the non-receipt by the member of the copy, shall not invalidate or otherwise affect the application of Article 81.1

81.4 Where default shares in which a person appears to be interested are held by a Custodian, the provisions of this Article 81 shall be treated as applying only to those shares held by the Custodian in which such person appears to be interested and not (insofar as that person's apparent interest is concerned) to any other shares held by the Custodian.

81.5 Where the member on which a Section 793 Notice is served is a Custodian acting in its capacity as a Custodian, the obligations of the Custodian as a member of the Company shall be limited to disclosing to the Company such information relating to any person appearing to be interested in the shares held by it as has been recorded by it pursuant to the arrangements entered into by the Company or approved by the Board pursuant to which it was appointed as a Custodian.

81.6 For the purposes of this Article 81:

81.6.1 A person, other than the member holding a share, shall be treated as appearing to be interested in that share if the member has informed the Company that the person is, or may be, so interested, or if the Company (after taking account of any information obtained from the member or, pursuant to a Section 793 Notice from anyone else) knows or has reasonable cause to believe that the person is, or may be, interested in that share;

81.6.2 "Interested" shall be construed as it is for the purpose of section 793 2006 Act;

81.6.3 reference to a person having failed to give the Company the information required by Section 793 Notice, or being in default as regards supplying that information, includes reference:

- (a) to his having failed or refused to give all or any part of it; and
- (b) to his having given information which he knows to be false in a material particular or having recklessly given information which is false in a material particular;

81.6.4 "Prescribed period" means 14 days from the date of service of the notice under section 793;

81.6.5 "Excepted transfer" means, in relation to any shares held by a member;

- (a) a transfer by way of or pursuant to acceptance of a takeover offer for the Company (within the meaning of the Statutes); or

- (b) a transfer in consequence of a sale made through a recognised investment exchange or any other stock exchange outside the United Kingdom on which the Company's shares are normally traded; or
- (c) a transfer which is shown to the satisfaction of the Board to be made in consequence of a sale of the whole of the beneficial interest in the shares to a person who is unconnected with the member and with any other person appearing to be interested in the shares.

81.7 Nothing contained in this Article 81 shall be taken to limit the powers of the Company under section 793 2006 Act or any other powers whatsoever.

UNTRACED MEMBERS

82. Power of sale

82.1 The Company shall be entitled to sell at the best price reasonably obtainable any share of a member, or any share to which a person is entitled by transmission, if and provided that:

- 82.1.1 during the period of 12 years immediately prior to the date of the publication of the advertisements referred to in subparagraph 82.1.3 below (or, if published on different dates, the earlier or earliest of those dates) (the "relevant period") the Company has paid at least three cash dividends (whether interim or final) on the share;
- 82.1.2 no cash dividend payable on the share has either been claimed by presentation to the paying bank of the relevant cheque or warrant or been satisfied by the transfer of funds to a bank account designated by the holder of, or person entitled by transmission to, the shares at any time during the relevant period and the company has received no communications in respect of that share from the member or person entitled by transmission;
- 82.1.3 on or after expiry of the relevant period the Company has given notice of its intention to sell that share by advertisements in two newspapers of which one shall be a national newspaper published in the United Kingdom and the other shall be a newspaper circulating in the area of the address on the Register or other last known address of the member or the person entitled by transmission to the share or the address for the service of the notices notified under Article 16.3.3;
- 82.1.4 those advertisements, if not published on the same day, shall have been published within 30 days of each other;
- 82.1.5 during the further period of three months following the date of publication of those advertisements (or, if published on different dates, the later or latest of those advertisements) and prior to the exercise of the power of sale the Company has not received any communication in respect of that share from the member or person entitled by transmission; and 82.1.6 if shares of the class concerned are listed or dealt in on any stock exchange, the Company has given notice to that exchange (where required) of its intention to make that sale.

82.2 To give effect to any sale of shares pursuant to this Article the Board may authorise some person to transfer the share in question and may enter the name of the transferee in respect of the transferred shares in the Register even in the absence of any share certificate being lodged in respect of that share and may issue a new certificate to the transferee. An instrument of transfer executed by that person shall be as effective as if it had been executed by the holder of, or the person entitled by transmission to, the share. The purchaser shall not be bound to see the application of the purchase moneys, nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings relating to the sale.

82.3 If during the relevant period referred to in Article 82.1, or during any period ending on the date when all the requirements of paragraphs 82.1.1 to 82.1.6 of Article 82.1 have been satisfied, any additional shares have been issued in respect of those held at the beginning of, or previously so issued during, that period and all the requirements of paragraphs 82.1.3 to 82.1.6 of Article 82.1 have been satisfied in regard to such additional shares, the Company shall also be entitled to sell the additional shares.

83. Application of proceeds of sale

The Company shall account to the member or other person entitled to that share for the net proceeds of that sale by carrying all moneys in respect of that share to a separate account. The Company shall be deemed to be a debtor to and not a trustee for, that member or other person in respect of those moneys. Moneys carried to a separate account may either be employed in the business of the Company or invested in any investments as the Board may from time to time think fit. No interest shall be payable to any member or other person in respect of those moneys and the Company shall not be required to account for any money earned on those investments.

84. Appointment of President

The Board may appoint any person deemed by the Board to be fit for such appointment to be the President and may determine the period for which he is to hold office. 88. Power of Board to appoint Directors

A director so appointed to any executive office shall not be subject to retirement by rotation and shall not be taken into account in determining the number of directors to retire by rotation. The Board, or any committee authorised by the Board may revoke or terminate that appointment without prejudice to any claim for damages for breach of contract between the Director and the Company.

90. Eligibility of new Directors

94. Directors subject to retirement by rotation

As between two or more Directors who have been in office for an equal length of time, the Director to retire shall, in default of agreement between them, be determined by lot. The directors to retire on each occasion (both as to number and identity) shall be determined by the composition of the Board at the start of business on the date of the notice convening the annual general meeting even in the event of a change in the number of identity of the Directors after that time but before close of the meeting.

95. Position of retiring Director

A Director who retires at an annual general meeting (whether by rotation or otherwise) may, if willing to act, be re-appointed. If he is not re-appointed or deemed to have been reappointed, he shall retain office until the meeting appoints someone in his place or, if it does not do so, until the end of the meeting.

96. Deemed re-appointment

96.1 At any general meeting at which a Director retires by rotation, the Company may by ordinary resolution fill the vacancy by electing the retiring Director or some other person eligible for appointment. If the Company does not do so, the retiring Director shall (if willing) be deemed to have been re-appointed unless it is expressly resolved not to fill the vacancy or a resolution for the re-appointment of the Director is put to the meeting and lost except in the following circumstances

96.1.1 it is expressly resolved not to fill the vacancy, and

96.1.2 a resolution for the re-appointment of the Director is put to the meeting and lost.

97. Removal by ordinary resolution

In addition to any power of removal conferred by the Statutes, the Company may by ordinary resolution remove any Director before the expiration of his period of office, but without prejudice to any claim for damages which he may have for breach of any contract of service between him and the Company, and may (subject to these Articles) by ordinary resolution appoint another person who is willing to act to be a Director in his place. Any person appointed by the Company shall be treated, for the purposes of determining the time at which he or any other Director is to retire, as if he had become a Director on the day on which the person in whose place he is appointed was last appointed or re-appointed a Director.

98. Vacation of office by Director

98.1 Without prejudice to the provisions for retirement (by rotation or otherwise) contained in these Articles, the office of a Director shall be vacated if:

98.1.6 he is requested to resign by notice in writing addressed to him at his address as shown in the register of Directors and signed by all of the other Directors but so that if he holds an appointment to an executive office which thereby automatically determines such removal shall be deemed to be an act of the Company and shall have effect without prejudice to any claim for damages which he may have for breach of any contract between him and the Company and, for this purpose, a set of like notices each signed by one or more of the Directors shall be as effective as a single notice signed by the requisite number of Directors.

A Director acting as alternate Director shall have a separate vote at Board meetings for each Director for whom he acts as alternate Director (and who is not present) in addition to his own vote (if any) as a Director, but he shall count as only one for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present.

102. Alternate Director responsible for own acts

Every person acting as an alternate Director shall be an officer of the Company, shall alone be responsible to the Company for his own acts and defaults and shall not be deemed to be the agent of the Director appointing him.

If at any time the share capital of the Company is divided into different classes, the Board may pay any interim dividends on shares which rank after shares conferring preferential rights with regard to dividend as well as on shares conferring preferential rights, unless at the time of payment any preferential dividend is in arrears. may suffer by the lawful payment of any interim dividend on any shares ranking after those with preferential rights

143. Entitlement to dividends

145.1.1 issue fractional certificates (or ignore fractions),

145.1.2 fix the value for distribution of assets or any part of those assets and determine that cash payments may be made to any members on the footing of the value so fixed, in order to adjust the rights of members, and

In respect of shares in uncertificated form, where the Company is authorised to do so by or on behalf of the holder or joint holders in any manner as the Company shall from time to time consider sufficient, the Company may also pay that

- 147.2 Every cheque, warrant or order may be sent by post or other delivery service (or by other means offered by the Company as the member or persons entitled to it may agree in writing) to the last registered address (or in the case of a Custodian, subject to the approval of the Board, those persons and addresses as the Custodian may require) of the member or person entitled to it (or, if two or more persons are holders of the share or are jointly entitled to it by reason of the death or bankruptcy of the member or otherwise by operation of law, to the registered address of such of those persons as is first named in the Register) or to the person and the address which that member or person or persons may direct in writing. In respect of shares in uncertificated form, every payment made by any other method as is referred to in Article 147.1 shall be made in that manner as may be consistent with the facilities and requirements of the relevant system concerned. If the shares are held in uncertificated form, that payment may include the sending by the Company or by any person on its behalf of an instruction to the operator of the relevant system to credit the cash memorandum account of the holder or joint holders or, if permitted by the Company, of that person as the holder or joint holders may in writing direct
- 147.3 Every cheque, warrant, order or other form of payment is sent at the risk of the person entitled to the money represented by it, shall (where relevant) be crossed in accordance with the Cheques Act 1992 and shall be made payable to the person or persons entitled, or to any other person as the person or persons entitled may direct in writing. Payment of the cheque, warrant, order or other form of payment (including, in respect of shares in uncertificated form, the making of payment in accordance with the facilities and requirements of the relevant system concerned) shall be a good discharge to the Company. If that cheque, warrant, order or other form of payment has or shall be alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed, the Board may, at the request of the person entitled thereto, issue a replacement cheque or warrant or order or make payment in some other form, subject to compliance with those conditions as to evidence and indemnity and the payment of out of pocket expenses of the Company in connection with the request as the Board may think fit
- 147.4 Any joint holder or other person jointly entitled to share may give an effective receipt for any dividend or other moneys payable in respect of such share
- 147.5 The Board may, at its discretion, make provisions to enable a Custodian and/or any member as the Board shall from time to time determine to receive duly declared dividends in a currency or currencies other than sterling. For the purposes of the calculation of the amount receivable in respect of any dividend, the rate of exchange to be used to determine the foreign currency equivalent of any sum payable as a dividend shall be the rate or rates and the payment of that dividend shall be on terms, conditions and provisions as the Board may in its absolute discretion determine
- 147.6 In this Article 147, reference to “in writing” shall include the use of electronic communications
148. Uncashed dividends

If cheques, warrants or orders for dividends or other sums payable in respect of a share sent by the Company to the person entitled to those dividends or sums are returned to the Company or left uncashed on two consecutive occasions or, following one occasion, reasonable enquiries have failed to establish any new address to be used for the purpose, the Company shall not be obliged to send any dividends or other money payable in respect of that share due to that person until he notifies the Company of an address to be used for the purpose

149. Unclaimed dividends

All dividends, interest or other sum payable and unclaimed for 12 months after having become payable may be invested or otherwise made use of by the Board for the benefit of the Company until claimed and the Company shall not be constituted a trustee in respect of those dividends, interest or sum payable. All dividends unclaimed for a period of 12 years after having been declared or become due for payment shall be forfeited and shall cease to remain owing by the Company

150. Payment of scrip dividends

150.1 The Board may, with the prior authority of an ordinary resolution of the Company and subject to any term, conditions and provisions as the Board may determine, offer to any holders of shares the right to elect to receive shares (excluding any member holding shares as treasury shares), credited as fully paid, instead of the whole (or some part, to be determined by the Board) of any dividend specified by the ordinary resolution. The following provisions shall apply:

150.1.1 the ordinary resolution may specify a particular dividend, or may specify all or any dividends declared within a specified period or periods;

150.1.2 the entitlement of each holder of shares to new share shall be the relevant value of the entitlement that shall be as nearly as possible equal to (but not greater than) the cash amount (disregarding any tax credit) of the dividend that the holder would have received by way of dividend. For this purpose “relevant value” shall be calculated by reference to the average of the middle market quotations for the shares on the London Stock exchange, as derived from the Daily Official List, for the day on which the shares are first quoted “ex” the relevant dividend and the four subsequent dealing days, or in any other manner as the Board may determine on any basis it considers to be fair and reasonable. A certificate or report by the Auditors as to the amount of the relevant value in respect of any dividend shall be conclusive evidence of that amount;

150.1.3 no fractions of a share shall be allotted. The Board may make any provisions as it thinks fit for any fractional entitlement including provisions where, in whole or in part, the benefit of those fractional entitlements accrues to the Company and/or under which fractional entitlements are accrued and/or retained and in each case accumulated on behalf of any member and those accruals or retentions are applied to the allotment by way of bonus to or cash subscription on behalf of that member of fully paid shares and/or provisions where cash payments may be made to members in respect of their fractional entitlement;

- 150.1.4 the Board shall, after determining the basis of allotment, notify the holders of shares in writing of the right of election offered to them, and specify the procedure to be followed and place at which, and the latest time by which, elections must be lodged in order to be effective;
- 150.1.5 the Board may exclude from any offer any holders of shares or any shares held by a Custodian or any shares on which dividends are payable in foreign currency where the Board considers that the making of the offer to them or in respect of such shares would or might involve the contravention of the laws of any territory or that for any other reason the offer should not be made to them or in respect of those shares;
- 150.1.6 The Board may establish or vary from time to time a procedure for election mandates in respect of future rights of election and may determine that every duly effected election in respect of any shares shall be binding on every successor in title to the holder of those;
- 150.1.7 The dividend (or that part of the dividend in respect of which a right of election has been offered) shall not be payable on shares in respect of which an election has been duly made (“the elected shares”) and instead additional shares shall be allotted to the holders of the elected shares on the basis of allotment determined as aforesaid. For such purpose the Board may capitalise, out of any amount for the time being standing to the credit of any reserve or fund (including any share premium account or capital redemption reserve) or of any of the profits which could otherwise have been applied in paying dividends in cash as the Board may determine, a sum equal to the aggregate nominal amount of the additional shares to be allotted on that basis and apply it in paying up in full the appropriate number of unissued shares for allotment and distribution to the holders of the elected shares on that basis. A Board resolution capitalising any part of such reserve or fund or profits shall have the same effect as if such capitalisation has been declared by ordinary resolution of the Company in accordance with Article 152 and in relation to any such capitalisation the Board may exercise all the powers conferred on them by Article 152 without need of an ordinary resolution;
- 150.1.8 The additional shares so allotted shall rank pari passu in all respects with each other and with the fully paid shares in issue on the record date for the dividend in respect of which the right of election has been offered, except that they will not rank for any dividend or other distribution or other entitlement which has been declared, paid or made by reference to that record date;

150.1.9 The Board may terminate, suspend or amend any offer of the right to elect to receive shares in lieu of any cash dividend at any time and generally may implement any scrip dividend scheme on any terms, conditions or provisions the Board may from time to time determine and take such other action the Board may deem necessary or desirable from time to time in respect of that scheme; and

150.1.10 In this Article 150, reference to “in writing” shall include the use of electronic communications

151. Reserves

The Board may, before recommending any dividend (whether preferential or otherwise), carry to reserve out of the profits of the Company any sums as it thinks fit. All sums standing to reserve may be applied from time to time, at the discretion of the Board, for any purpose to which the profits of the Company may properly be applied, and pending that application may, at the like discretion, either be employed in the business of the Company or be invested in any investments the Board thinks fit. The Board may divide the reserve into any special funds it thinks fit, and may consolidate into one fund any special funds or any parts of any special funds into which the reserve may have been divided it thinks fit. The Board may also, without placing the same to reserve, carry forward any profits which it may think prudent not to distribute.

152. Capitalisation of reserves

152.1 The Board may, with the authority of an ordinary resolution of the Company:

152.1.1 subject as provided in this Article, resolve to capitalise any undivided profits of the Company not required for paying any preferential dividend (whether or not they are available for distribution) or any sum standing to the credit or any reserve or fund of the Company which is available for distribution or standing the credit of share premium account or capital redemption serve or other undistributable reserve

152.1.2 appropriate the sum resolved to be capitalised to the holders of shares in proportion to the nominal amounts of the shares (whether or not fully paid) held by them respectively which would entitle them to participate in a distribution of that sum if the shares were fully paid and the sum were then distributable and were distributed by way of dividend and apply such sum on their behalf either in or towards paring up the amounts, if any, for the time being unpaid on any shares held by them respectively, or in paying up in full unissued shares or debentures of the Company of a nominal amount equal to that sum, and allot the shares or debentures credited as fully paid to those holders of shares or as they may direct, in those proportions, or partly in one way and partly in the other, provided that:

- (a) the share premium account, the capital redemption reserve, any other undistributable reserve and any profits which are not available for distribution may, for the purposes of this Article, only be applied in paying up unissued shares to be allotted to holders of shares credited as fully paid; and
- (b) in a case where any sum is applied in paying amounts for the time being unpaid on any shares of the Company or in paying up in full debentures of the Company, the amount of the net assets of the Company at that time is not less than the aggregate of the called up share capital of the Company and its undistributable reserves as shown in the latest audited accounts of the Company or such other accounts as may be relevant and would not be reduced below that aggregate by the payment of that sum; and
- (c) where the amount capitalised is applied in paying up in full unissued shares the Company will also be entitled to participate in the relevant distribution in relation to any shares held by it as treasury shares and the proportionate entitlement of the members to the distribution will be calculated accordingly.

152.1.3 resolve that any shares so allotted to any member in respect of a holding by him of any partly paid shares shall, so long as those shares remain partly paid, rank for dividends only to the extent that those partly paid shares rank for dividends;

152.1.4 make any provision by the issue of fractional certificates (or by ignoring fractions or by accruing the benefit of the fraction to the Company rather than to the holders of shares concerned) or by payment in cash or otherwise as it thinks fit in the case of shares or debentures becoming distributable in fractions;

152.1.5 authorise any person to enter on behalf of all the holders of shares concerned into an agreement with the Company providing for either:

- (a) the allotment to them respectively, credited as fully paid up, of any shares or debentures to which they may be entitled on that capitalisation; or
- (b) the payment up by the Company on behalf of those holders by the application to the Company of their respective proportions of the reserves or profits resolved to be capitalised, of the amounts or any part of the amounts remaining unpaid on their existing shares (any agreement made under this authority being effective and binding on all those holders); and 152.1.6 generally do all acts and things required to give effect to such resolution.

153. Record dates

Subject to the Statutes, the Company or the Board may by resolution specify any date (the “record date”) as the date at the close of business (or any other time the Board may determine) on which persons registered as the holders of shares or other securities shall be entitled to receipt of any dividend, distribution, interest, allotment, issue, notice, information, document or circular and that record date may be on or at any time before the date on which the same is paid, made, given or served or (in the case of any dividend, distribution, interest, allotment or issue) at any time after the same is recommended, resolved, declared or announced but without prejudice to the rights inter se in respect of the same of transferors and transferees of any of those shares or other securities. No change in the register of those holders after the record date shall invalidate the same.

ACCOUNTS

154. Accounting records

The Board shall cause accounting records to be kept in accordance with the Statutes.

155. Inspection of records

No member (other than a Director) shall have any right to inspect any accounting record or other document of the Company unless he is authorised to do so by statute, by order of the court, by the Board or by ordinary resolution of the Company.

Except as provided in Article 160, a copy of the Directors’ and Auditors’ reports accompanied by copies of the annual accounts shall, not less than 21 clear days before the annual general meeting before which they are to be laid, be delivered or sent to every member and holder of debentures of the Company and to the Auditors and to every other person who is entitled to receive notice of general meetings. Those documents may be sent by way of electronic communications. However, this Article shall not require a copy of those documents to be sent to any person who under the provisions of these Articles is not entitled to receive notices from the Company or of whose address the Company is unaware or to any holder of debentures of whose address the Company is unaware or to more than one of the joint holders of any shares or debentures but any member and holder of debentures of the Company to whom a copy of these documents has not been sent should be entitled to receive a copy free of charge on application to the registered office of the Company. If all or any of the shares in or debentures of the Company are listed or dealt in on any stock exchange, there shall at the same time be forwarded to that stock exchange any number of copies of each of those documents as the regulations of that stock exchange may require.

157. Summary financial statements

The Company may, in accordance with the Statutes and any regulations made under them, send a summary financial statement to any member instead of or in addition to the documents referred to in Article 156. Where it does so, the statement shall be delivered or sent to the member or published on a website in accordance with the Statutes, not less than 21 clear days before the annual general meeting before which those documents are to be laid. That document may be sent by way of electronic communications.
